

TRAVELLING

I am on a journey travelling day by day,
I don't know where I am going but I will enjoy each step of the way.
My journey started years ago
When I was just a child,
The people I have met, the choices I have made
Have influenced every mile.
My journey has taught me many things
It's the university of life,
I have learnt how to read and write, how to be a good mother and wife.
It has taught me how to give and take,
Make friends and be a friend too,
The people I have met on my journey
Often guide me through the sorrows and joys that affect us all,
They hold me up when I begin to fall.

We are all on this journey of life,
All going in the same direction.
We cannot go back, we can only move on and learn as we practice reflection,
We need to make the most of our journey
As we travel along life's way,
If we hope to find redemption we should walk with God each day.
